THE ALEXANDRIA REFORM CLUB - The Alexandria Reform Club held a large end interesting meeting at their ball, on Fairfax street, last night with Mr. H. M. Foliz, President, in the chair, and Capt, Wm. II. Smith, Secretary pro tem.

After the transaction of some "routine busi ness, Rev. Mr. Beyle, of the M. E. Church South, who has been very active in the temperance movement for some time past, and who expects to leave this city before the next regular meeting of the c'ub fer a new field of labor, made a short address, in which he hid farewell to the members, and exherred them not to suffer their interest in the week to dinisish until the last drutk and was saved, and the rum traffic in this city abolished so that no more druckards could be made. The ciub, he said, was in a prosperous condition, and he had too much confidence in the zeal, hener and ability of the members to thick that it would not continue to grow and become even a greater power for good in the community in the future than it had been in the past. Mr. Foliz then mad s m remarks, in which he said that after a careful revision of the club list it was found that the memberst is combered over five hundred, and that they were men.b. is RESH LEMONS received to-day by who had proved by faithful services that they i jand J.
